The London Telegraph correspondent says, that American recognition is but little valued there, and is regarded more as the good will of a power without material influence.

On Sunday a French reconnoitering party encountered a body of French at Chateau Thiers. A sharp engagement occurred and the Prussians were repulsed with considerable loss.

The city of Soissons has refused to surrender in response to the summons of the French General.

Munich, Sept. 13.

General Sieckes, Ambassador to Paris, for some weeks past has been rustication, occasionally visiting the capital. Last week an armed party stopped the usual diligences and demanded Mr. Sieckes, but fortunately he was not there. The government now supplies him with a guard for these journeys.

Bismarck's special report to King William dated December 2d, inst., indicates at the interview he held with the French Emperor at Strasburg, which lasted for an hour. Napoleon sought better conditions in the matter of capitulation than had been offered at first by the Germans.

On this military point Bismarck did not succeed in convincing the Emperor that he was quite willing and ready to discuss questions looking to peace. The Emperor replied that, as he was a prisoner, that was impossible, but referred the Count to the actual Government at Paris.

Diplomats Going to Tours.

Tours, Sept. 13.

The arrangements are making here to receive the Diplomatic body. As the Commander of Foreign Affairs has decided to remain in Paris, representatives of the foreign Governments will also stay some days longer.

The people are much impressed in favor of the American Government and anxious awaiting the arrival of Washington.

The French Ambassador to Paris, presented address to Milton M. Price, Consul of the United States. Speeches were made and bands played the national airs of Ameria and France and the crowd cheered with great enthusiasm the United States Consul.

Communications Still Maintained.

London, Sept. 12.

Communications between Brussels and Paris are still maintained via Dover and Ostend. The chance of the successful defense of Paris are thought to increase hourly.

Arrival of Thiers.

London, Sept. 13.

The special Journal de St. Petersburg in discussing the mission of Thiers to the neutral powers hopes he may carry home a conviction favorable to peace. To do so he must surmount his prejudices and obstacles. He will then set France a great example and make her own influence more perfect.

Recalled.

Thiers.

A special dispatch from Paris dated London, the 13th, says: Thiers looks care-worn and ill, and a disillusion to conversation. A few days ago he exchanged with an old acquaintance, at Dover, who inquired whether he came as an accredited envoy of the French Republic. He indicated that he knew no Republic, only the government of France.

This is good news for the Emperor, for he has no objection to the French as a party, but that he does not bring war to their door and order, leaving the administration full freedom of action.

The independence of the Holy See will not be easily announced, they destroyed the Emperor's hopes for better terms. The French officers were then allowed to go on parole.

Sicilians.

Paris, Sept. 13.

The defense of the commandant at Soissons to the Prussians demanding surrender is enthusiastically approved by the inhabitants, all of whom declare their determination to fight to the last and endure every hardship in the service of France.

Italian Proclamation.

Florence, Sept. 13.

General Cordini, who commands the Italian troops on the Po, has issued a proclamation to the Roman people.

The paper retains the abolition of the stamp duty because the advertising patronage is destroyed and paper is unavailable.

The Opinion National referring to the French troops says the Prussians will fill some of the gaps to speak to and material abundant to make the conversation longer and interesting.

Exact Position of the Prussians Unknown.

Paris, Sept. 13.

The exact position of the Prussian advance is unknown. According to various accounts the enemy has arrived at Meaux, Sagy and Melun.

The De Bats has a long editorial extolling the patriotism of Thiers.

LONDON, Sept. 13.

Peace Rumors.

Paris, Sept. 13.

The Times says: M. Thiers comes to England pursuant to instructions from the provisional government, and is doubtless in the secret of the views of that government touching peace. We hope these views may be accepted as a basis of negotiations. The conditions will probably embrace the dismantling of Metz and Strasburg or their occupation for three years by the Germans. If the two are at all reasonable England will back them.

Varieties.

—The nights are as cool as a rich relation.

What has become of the new military company?

—The new three story frame building on Franklin street is enclosed and work on the inside is progressing rapidly.

—The headquarters of the Casement

Bros. will soon be removed from Washington street, to their new rooms in the Ferry block, corner of Spring and Martin streets.

—The foundations of the new passenger depot, between Franklin and Washington

Streets, have been completed, and a large mass of masonry is now busily engaged in laying the walls.

—The statement is made that the smoke of the dried leaves of a pumpkin-vine burnt on a bright fire will cause flies to quit an apartment instantly, or it will kill them. The experiment is certainly worth trying.

—All wishing to be present at the opening of the Ellsworth House, Erie, tomorrow evening, can obtain tickets in this city of the following gentleman: Dr.

George J. Luce, H. Hinckley, D. C. Clark, and A. K. Murray.

—All persons disposed to aid a worthy object will doubtless bear in mind the festival to be given at Corinthian Hall to-tomorrow (Thursday) evening, under the auspices of the A. M. E. Church.

The proceeds are to be devoted toward the purchase of a lot on which to erect a new church edifice, and as the means of the congregation are limited all assistance will be thankfully received.

—The greater Saturn, which is always one of the most beautiful sights in the heavens, possesses special interest for star gazers at the present time, from the fact that the position of its ring with regard to the earth is such that they appear open to their widest extent—a phenomenon which will not occur again for fifteen years. Saturn is situated in the constellation Scorpion, and may be readily known from its soft glow and pale yellow hue.

It passes below the western horizon a little before midnight every evening.

—For a couple of months there will be capital duck-shooting, at Chautauque

Lake.

—The Harrisburg Tops, started by Dr.

Gibon sometime ago, suspended publication on Saturday.

YESTERDAY was one of the loveliest of days. The air was pure and balmy, but the changing color of the leaves gave evidence of the near approach of Autumn.

—ANOTHER STRIKE. The new well,

"No. 3," near Fagundas City, is doing well, two hundred barrels. We are so informed by a dispatch from Mr. McNair, received last evening.

—IN TOWN.—Henry Harley, of New York, J. Brown, of Saratoga, the Casenmet Brothers, D. B. Gladyst and J. C.

Williams, of the Union and Titusville

Railroad, were at the Crittenden last evening.

—The seats in the First Baptist Church, corner Perry and Walnut streets, will be rented that evening, at the Church.

The Excelent choir of the Church will furnish the music, and the ladies connected with the Society the refreshments. All are cordially invited to attend and bring their friends with them.

—A PITTSBURG subscriber calls on us for the population of Meadville, as according to the recent census. "We pass."

Our statement might be distrusted. We try our best to be humble when we think how much our town exceeds Meadville.

We dislike to extort the unwholesome truth from a reluctant witness. But we call on the Meadville Republican for the figures, and wait anxiously for a reply.

—EXPLOSION ON CHURCH RUN.—The

explosion on Church Run, on Monday evening, which was noticed yesterday, was caused by the explosion of a boiler at one of the Empire Works, owned by Mr. F. Crocker, of this city. The well has been pumped by "heads" for some time, and had been shut down for the night but a short time previous to the explosion. It is surmised that the gas, of which there was about enough to run the engine, was not turned off entirely, and the water becoming low caused the accident. Fortunately no person was in the vicinity, as everything was blown to "smathers" while the fragments loft caught fire and were soon consumed.

—OYSTERS received daily at Shank's; warranted fresh and nice.

All oysters bought at Shank's are warranted, and full size cans.

Neighborhood News.
—The foundation for a new school house has been laid in Corry.

—The annual fair of Erie county, New York, commenced to-day.

—The Erie Conference of the Methodist Church begins its annual session at Cleveland to-day.

—The Meadville and Jamestown Base

Ball Club play a game on the grounds of the latter to-day.

—Sherry is making the grand round of the cities in the central part of the State, and his success is all that he could wish.

—Court week brought the usual increase to the population of Meadville, and hotel keepers "rejoice and are exceeding-glad" in consequence.

—The Union offices of the Union and Titusville Railroad will soon be located in a brick block now being erected by P. G.

Stranahan, at the former place.

—The Erie Republican publishes a long letter from M. B. Lowry, giving his reasons for withdrawing from the Congressional contest in the 19th district.

—About two thousand tons of railroad iron for the North Pacific Railroad is now on the Anchor Line docks, Erie, awaiting shipment. Some three thousand tons are at Milwaukee.

—The celebrated trotting mare, Lady

Thorne, is now able to take out-door exercises, and is recovering rapidly. It is the opinion of those who have the care in charge that she will again astonish turfies

by her wonderful bursts of speed.

—The Democratic Convention of the 10th Congressional district, which assembled at Ridgway on Monday, nominated

Judge S. Martin of Erie, as the candidate of the party in opposition to Mr. Scofield.

This, with the withdrawal of Mr. Lowry, renders certain the re-election of the present member, Mr. S.

—T. Anderson, Esq., formerly an operator at Pleasantville and other points in the oil regions, has entered into partnership with A. P. Ingberman, in the wholesale notion business at Meadville. The house is an established one and Mr. A.

M. has many friends throughout the oil country and will make it his duty to attend to the interests of Titusville for their liberal patronage; also to the Germans and most especially to Mr. H.

Miller's Station on the A. & G. W. Railway, on Wednesday last. He had been bathing, but came out and was walking on the beachy bank which gave way under him, precipitating him into the water. From cramps or some other reason, he was unable to extricate himself. He was about twenty-two years of age.

—The indications are that the "opening party to be given at the Ellsworth House on Thursday evening, will not only be a success, but one of the most numerously attended of any given in the city. It was intended to have the entire population of the city in attendance.

—The Titusville Leader states that the census now just completed, according to the census of 1870, is 92,98

Titusville Morning Herald.

The Canada Fire. An Ottawa correspondent who paid a visit to the burnt district lying northwest of the village of Hull, thus speaks of the general desolation:

In some places where there had been woods on either side of the road we saw green spots which the flames had leaped over in their bounding fury, and trees, all most unscathed standing, leaning, charred and blackened trunks. Elsewhere the work of desolation had been complete, nothing had escaped. Not only was the surface soil consumed, leaving the ground black and bare; the trees stripped of their leaves and every vestige of vegetation; but here and there the wind had torn up the trunks by the roots, leaving them broken and twisted, like stalks of grain before the reaper. There were many broad fields dotted, at considerable distances apart, by huge stumps, and every stump had been wrapped in flames. The cedar fence along the roads, around the houses, dividing fields, and forming the boundaries of the farms, had been completely destroyed, almost without exception. Solitary chimneys were seen standing in the centre of extensive fields, far away from the blazing woods. Here and there a barn or dairy was left standing, and furnished shelter to the farmers and their families. Farmers who were living in their houses supplied by the Canadian Government, or had constructed rude huts of logs and board. On one farm the barn had ignited three times, and the fire was smothered with sand, then being no water obtainable. Another little group of buildings had been left standing, but were surrounded on all sides by flames, which were at times half a dozen rods distant. What an orchard escaped, and it was common sight to see trees filled with baked fruit. We drove into the grounds of what had been a summer residence, and nothing was left but the stone walls, the chimney, the cellar walls, and the basement (the bottom of which had burned out), and the remains of a cooking stove. Everything had been consumed in an incredibly short space of time, and the family only escaped by taking refuge in a field of green bushes, and here and there a old man who buried to death in the public road, some remnants of clothing still marking the spot where his body was found.

Or any man who has ever used one of them, as to the perfection and economy of their working.

We have received the following note from a gentleman well known in the Oil Region:

Mr. F. W. Ames:

Dear Sir—The Blake Pump works admirably and is now supplying the largest number of oil wells in the region of only forty-five strokes per minute.

I shall be pleased to fit it with a still larger motor,
so that we may fit it with both easily.

It is now in full operation, and is working well, and will supply them both easily.

The Pump has never required the least repair, is always ready to start, and is a great convenience.

The best Steam Pump I have ever seen.

Yours truly,

P. W. GARFIELD
